Broomfield Art Guild Meeting Summary - March 12, 2024

Dave Shelley ran this meeting.

29 members were in attendance along with a total of 5 guests.

- The next Guild meeting will be on April 16 instead of the 9th due to an activity by the church that pre-empted our usual time.
 - Kim T. described the Broomfield High School's Just After Midnight (JAM) party and asked for people to volunteer to help with the many tasks and activities for the weekend starting April 12.
 - The Fall Member Show will be held during August, and we have no one to run the Affordable Art Show. Dave asked that anyone who wanted to take on that event contact Jim Ball. He also pointed out that the Reception would be August 10 and we needed someone to volunteer to coordinate the food for the reception.
 - Jake Pinello has a show at the Lafayette Public Library. It will run through April – members were encouraged to check it out.

- Melanie Fischer is beginning work to revamp the Guild's website. She explained that she especially wanted to upgrade the member pages with more information about the artists, more photographs of artwork, and a 'headshot' of each artist. She passed around a spread sheet for members to indicate their social media connections and their contact information to show on each member's page.

We had a few people share art today. We would like more members to participate.

Tanner Steed was the guest artist. He worked on painting a white rose in oil. While he painted, he talked about the importance of paying attention to all the other colors around your subject since they will influence the color of that subject. He showed with his painting that if you have warm light coming from one side of your subject, you should complement that with cool light coming from the opposite direction. He was well received by those present, and his demonstration was very impressive.
