The two guests- Margie Swift and Beverly (“Bubbles”) Almy -Watercolor teacher at Anthem Ranch - came to invite members to a Plein Aire “Quick Draw” at Anthem on June 22nd.

- Artists pay $5 to attend (covers food costs). Set up at 8 am, bell goes off at 8:30, you have 2 hours, then you put painting up for auction. 10:30- silent auction, with food catered. All mediums welcome, you can bring a photo to paint from - don't have to do Plein Air. Guests can attend this event for $10 to go towards food and beverages that will be available at the event. There will be a Silent Auction as well and 100% of sales go to the artists.

Melanie is working on our new website and still needs headshots, a 300-word artist statement/bio and 6 examples of work as soon as you can send to her melanie@fireflyvisual.com).

Anthem Ranch Event was last weekend.

- We need to brainstorm ideas for next year on how we can improve the event.
- Anyone who took pictures at Anthem Ranch, please send to Melanie.
- Don't forget to pay your sales tax - 8.15% of sales - send checks to Guild PO Box (can also use PayPal).

Still in negotiations with Anthem Highlands, they have an interim Lifestyle Coordinator and we're working to set up a meeting with her.

Art Share time

Tip shared during this time: Try using Golden's Open Acrylics for Plein Air- it's acrylic paint but stays wet longer.

Demo Artist Kelly Austin Rolo showed us her encaustic printing technique by applying wax to a hot plate, creating designs and texture in the wax with various tools and then pulling an image up by pressing paper onto the wax. Members had the opportunity to try their own design if desired.

Next meeting is August 13th.
